The Importance of Kindness

Kindness has been described as “love active.” There are many opportunities in the course of a day for anyone to do some little kindness for others, but many people are busy, hurried, and worried; and they fail to see the opportunity to make love active in this way in their life.

Start by shifting your vision outside yourself to others. There is a wonderful reward for you when you give the gift of God’s love in a kind act toward another.

Someone said, “The greatest thing a man can do for his heavenly Father is to be kind to some of His other children.”

Jesus put it this way: “As you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.”

Someone whose life will touch yours today needs your gift of kindness. Lift your vision; look around. You will not only discover the opportunity to bless another, but you will also receive a tremendous blessing yourself as you make love active in your life.

I have discovered that people you are not kind often use their roughness to protect themselves from being hurt.

Also, think before you speak! Would you want to be spoken to in an unkind way?
REMEMBER, KINDNESS IS THE VOICE OF GOD SPEAKING THROUGH YOU!!!!

God Bless,
Pastor Bob

The Last Supper On the Moon

If there are places in your heart and corners of your mind that feel just as deep and dark and inaccessible as outer space, this study is for you. Fight as you may, unearthing the happiness and fulfillment you long for can feel nearly impossible.

In Psalm 8 David urges us to consider the heavens, to look up at the night sky. Doing so will help you discover fundamental truths about God. Namely, that—even though his love for you is as beyond comprehension as the farthest corners of the universe—through his Son, you can grab hold of it, and it has the power to transform your inner space.

Bestselling author Levi Lusko shares how you can:

- learn that life is not about "finding yourself" but discovering who Jesus is
- believe that God's love and forgiveness is grander than even your greatest failure
- buck the mundane of everyday life and start dreaming again

Embark on an adventure tracing the words and wonders of Jesus on his trek to the cross. Let The Last Supper on the Moon compel you to live with a more profound sense of purpose and a grander view of Jesus, and set you on a trajectory to life, and life more abundantly.

In The Last Supper on the Moon video study, bestselling author and pastor Levi Lusko uses 1969 lunar mission as an analogy of God's mission of salvation. This five-session study explores God's love for us by sending Jesus to die for our sins and how the letters to the Revelation churches can help us live with purpose and hope.

In 1969, Apollo 11 astronaut Buzz Aldrin ate the first food and drink ever consumed on the moon---the bread and wine of communion. Using Aldrin's sacred meal as a launching point, Lusko explores how Christ's last words, "I Am" statements, and letters to the Revelation churches can help us live with purpose and hope.
